It has been a busy year for me, work is very busy and I have been doing a Jacobean Crewel Embroidery course with the RSN. Here are a few of my snap shots from my bridge camera. Thank you for your kind comments Goldie, next year I look forward to getting out more and getting to see some of those butterflies I have not seen yet. Last week I saw a beautiful male brimstone, but no chance of a photo
Debbie 😊😊😊

Don't know if that is a Dragonfly or Damselfly Debbie but it is better than anything I have managed – and I love the Robin shots 😊😊

Thank you Pauline. I have not identified the dragonfly yet?

Most of these pictures were taken on a large zoom.
